Eastern River Basin District Advisory Council Co-option of Members

Nominations are invited for the co-option of persons as members of the Eastern River Basin District Council.

An advisory council is being established by the local authorities in the Eastern River Basin District to encourage and facilitate the active involvement of interested parties in relation to the management of water quality, the protection of aquatic ecosystems and the preparation of river basin management plans. The advisory council will serve as a forum for direct dialogue, consultation and interaction between interested parties and the relevant public authorities.

Applications are invited by, or on behalf of, persons who have knowledge, qualifications or experience of relevance to the Eastern River Basin District and who wish to be considered for co-option to the advisory council for the district. The closing date for receipt of nominations is [INSERT DATE].

The Eastern River Basin District includes the river basins of the Avoca / Vartry, Boyne, Dartry, Dodder, Liffey and Nanny and their associated groundwaters and coastal waters. It covers all or part of the counties of Cavan, Dun Laoghaire - Rathdown, Fingal, Kildare, Louth, Meath, Offaly, South Dublin, Westmeath, Wexford and Wicklow and Dublin City.

Application forms and further information are available from www.erbd.ie or Tom Leahy, Deputy City Engineer, Dublin City Council, Civic Offices, Wood Quay, Dublin 8 (Tel 01-6722027 Email tom.leahy@dublincity.ie). Application forms may be downloaded directly from www.erbd.ie .

This notice is issued by Dublin City Council on behalf of all the relevant local authorities in the Eastern River Basin District.
